

LOCAL

Magnolia Pancake Haus announces Cibolo location coming in 2020

The restaurant will be the third location for "the world's best buttermilk pancakes" in San Antonio.

Author: Cameron Songer

Published: 10:06 PM CST December 22, 2019

Updated: 10:07 PM CST December 22, 2019

SAN ANTONIO —

Pancake lovers, rejoice! The Magnolia Pancake Haus will open a third location in Cibolo in 2020. The restaurant, which opened its doors in 2000, has locations on Embassy Oaks and Huebner Road, on the north and northwest sides, respectively.

An announcement on the Magnolia Pancake Haus Facebook page called the news "an early Christmas present." An exact address isn't available, and there's work to be done on the empty plot of land, but it is expected to be a new Magnolia Pancake Haus in August 2020.

The family-owned restaurant is popular in San Antonio for their "world famous" buttermilk pancakes. They also offer other breakfast staples, like omelets, french toast, bacon, ham, sausage and hashes.